

Team Teaching

Laura Cardiff (PME Student)
Trevor Smith (Co-operating Teacher)
Selskar College, Wexford

Pros

- ✓ Sharing of ideas/resources between teachers
- ✓ Students benefit from different teaching styles
- ✓ Opportunity individual student-teacher engagement and relationship building
- ✓ Can help with classroom management

Cons

- Lack of time for teachers to plan and evaluate lessons
- The fear of having another teacher in the classroom
- Poorly defined roles or unclear expectation of the teachers

The Consumer Lesson

Worksheet

Scenario	What do you think?	Element of law	What is means
You pay an electrician to fix your lights. He replaces some wires but they later turn out to be faulty

Think, Pair, Write, Share

Leading and supporting roles

Role Play

Student discussion and feedback

"I like having two teachers in the classroom because if one is teaching you can ask the other one for help"

"It's a little bit more exciting having two teachers, because they have different things to tell us"

"I wish we had classes like that more often"