

TEAM TEACHING

One assisting, one teaching approach

Megan Monerawela & Cormac O'Reilly

Benefits

- Learning from your colleague
- More classroom resources available
- Students learn more and receive more attention
- Easier to track student progress

Challenges

- Timing of lessons
- Doesn't work for every subject
- Management and resource scarcity

“We have fewer classroom management issues”

“It was great to work with and learn from a more experienced teacher in my field”

“Excellent for weaker students”

“More positive classroom atmosphere”

“If I don't understand something it is easier to get help in class”
