

Story Settings

On the sheets provided are four story settings. The setting of the story is explicit but is described through things you might see and hear if you were there.

Complete the following activity;

1. Read each paragraph and discuss where you think the story is set
2. Which words/phrases gave you clues as to where the story was set?

Follow-up Activities:

Create a story opening using descriptive vocabulary for one of the following

A school

A Playground

On board a ship
